SUNDAY 3RD SEPTEMBER 2023

WELCOME

to today's Surrey Slam Women's Finals' Day, which brings to a conclusion a very challenging Slam season.

My thanks to everyone who has played any part in getting games on, particularly over the last 6-8 weeks. The weather certainly hasn't played ball and I know how frustrating that is for everyone concerned, so to get to today with just the 8 teams involved, as planned, is an achievement that I am very grateful for.

I'm delighted that for the second year running we have run a Cup and Plate competition, and that they can both conclude today alongside each other thereby creating a fitting showcase of women's recreational cricket in Surrey, which has advanced so far since The Slam began.

Its pleasing to see where the game is compared to 4 years ago, but I believe there is more that we can do to ensure that the appeal of this competition remains broad and continues to be as accessible as possible. With this in mind I encourage all teams to discuss the questions that will be posed in the feedback questionnaire that will come out next week to aid that endeavour.

Whilst I thank them every year, I want to make a special note of our hosts Horsley & Send CC who have hosted every Women's Finals' Day and their support is unwavering. It takes a lot of effort to sort the pitches, bar and catering and it is always a pleasure coming back here and I am sure you will all enjoy their hospitality once again.

If you have any questions or just want to chat about anything cricket related, then please do not hesitate to stop me as I flit around the ground.

THE RULES

On the whole, all the normal laws of cricket apply in The Women's Slam competitions, but there are a few tweaks to ensure that games tick along at a good pace, most notably:

- The first 10 overs are bowled from one end and the second 10 from the other. Only the batters will change ends at the end of each over other than before the 11th over;
- The fielding team must have 4 fielders, plus the bowler and the wicketkeeper in the inner fielding ring at the point of the ball being bowled (3 fielders if it is 9-a-side). A no-ball shall be called if this is not the case;
- All illegal deliveries result in 2 runs and NO extra delivery being bowled, except for the final over of the innings where it is 2 runs AND an extra delivery;
- ANY no-ball results in a free hit on the next delivery;
- Batters retire not out when the ball is declared dead after they pass 40 but can return after all other wickets are taken;
- Only if not 11-a-side the same number of wickets as there are players in the side must be taken to be 'all out'. The last batter will be allowed to continue on their own and can only be run-out at the end they are running towards. If they run an odd number then they will return to the facing end once the ball is declared dead.
- Bowlers cannot bowl more than 4 overs (5 overs if 9-a-aside);
- In the event of a tie in any match (regardless of wickets lost) a super over will take place which will be decided by runs, then wickets, then boundaries over all 21 overs, then least extras, then bowl-out if necessary.
